Walking with The Snowman Trail

The Walking with The Snowman Trail first came to Middlesbrough in 2019 — and it's now a bit of a Boro Christmas tradition! Inspired by Raymond Briggs' famous festive tale, The Snowman sculptures are back in town. Simply grab a map, find all 12, and remember to snap a photo with them to enter our competition via the QR code below!

Holiday Inn Express are offering a free soft drink for kids* who show their snaps with the sculptures, plus enjoy 20% off your total food and drink bill while you warm up!

(T&Cs apply. One free soft drink per completed trail entry/family group. 20% discount valid on the day of trail completion only.)

The Snowman and Me Competition!

We know people love to visit our snowmen, and it's become a family tradition over the years for many.

So, dig out your favourite photo that you've snapped with one of the snowmen over the years, and send it to us with a more recent pic with them (the perfect excuse to head out and see them again!).

It can be a photo of you or your kids with their favourite snowman, a family member, or a friend. Simply send us two photos (ideally one old and one new) and tell us why visiting the trail has become a festive tradition!

1st prize: A Sleigh All Day package for up to five people at Level X.
2nd prize: A family pass to Fun Shack.
3rd prize: Roxy Cinema tickets.

All three prizes include book bundles from the National Literacy Trust Middlesbrough.
Entries close: 16 December.
Winners notified: By 18 December.

Send your photos to weare@middlesbrough.gov.uk and include your child's age, your contact details and why you love seeing the snowmen. (Scan the QR code for competition T&Cs).

Please don't stand or climb on the snowmen!

Colour me in for fun!
